As many of you know, this isn't just any rink. It is Canada's oldest still standing rink. A place where Windsor's love for hockey has grown for generations.

> Not only would this designation safeguard the rink's legacy, but it would also open up new opportunities for funding, ensuring we can restore and maintain it for future generations. The Windsor Hockey Heritage Committee is committed to protecting this landmark, but we can't do it alone. By working together, we can ensure the Stannus Street Rink remains a symbol of our shared hockey heritage for years to come.
